“ Pat was a great friend to many, always the first to make new friends. This gentle, sometimes stubborn soul, lived by Thoreaus advice to let the wind shake the chestnuts down for you. Pat only wanted to “Live in a house by the side of the road and be a friend to man”. We will miss him forever.

“ My Father-in-Law was a true one of a kind, larger than life presence that will be deeply missed by everyone who loved him. I'll miss his quick wit and the way he called me "Darlin". Watch over us Dad until we meet again. I love you forever. ☐
