

Peggy Ann Funkhouser

July 3, 1931 - July 4, 2020

Peggy Ann Funkhouser, 89, of Bloomington, Indiana, died Saturday, July 4, 2020 at her daughter's residence where she had been living for many years.

The family will have a private memorial and burial at Liberty Cemetery in Cynthiana, Indiana at a later date.

In honor of her life, contributions may be made to IU Health Hospice.

Peggy was born July 3, 1931, in Evansville, Indiana. In her early years, she worked in Cape Canaveral and in St. Louis as a bookkeeper helping with the construction of the St. Louis Arch. She later became a realtor working in Bloomington, Indiana and Dothan, Alabama where she retired. She moved back to Bloomington as a widow to be close to her family and spent many years volunteering at the Bloomington Hospital as the "cookie lady" and helped in the gift store.

She enjoyed travelling all over the world and loved her friends at Meadowwood. She also loved and enjoyed her eight grandchildren Emilie, Gabrielle, Luke, Danny, Sage, Trin, Jadyne and Ali.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Donald Lee Funkhouser. Survivors include her only daughter, Judy Ann Getts (Funkhouser) and her husband, Eddie Getts and their eight children.
