“Mamaw, you were the strongest woman I've ever known. You taught me so many things throughout my life and especially now that I have two boy's. I have so many fun memories coming to your house when I was a little girl! I loved getting to wear your high heels, put on your makeup and spray myself with your perfume! I remember coming over to watch the golden girls and eating popcorn. I loved how you taught me to cook! You were an amazing cook! I remember you were at every big milestone in my life, graduations, wedding, birth of your great grandsons! We are all going to miss you so much but we know we will see you again! I love you and hope to be as strong of a woman as you taught me to be!

*Love you,
Sarah*

“ Evelyn was a sweet lady. She was very caring and I enjoyed her stories and her laughter. I was her main caregiver for 3 or 4 years before she and Warren decided to go into a nursing home. I loved still visiting her. You are truly missed and I will never forget you.
