

Rachel D. Boggs

April 26, 1932 - October 10, 2019

Rachel Boggs, 87, of Bloomington passed away peacefully in her sleep on Thursday, October 10, 2019. Rachel Deloris York was born in Morgantown, Indiana on April 26, 1932 the daughter of Solman and Bessie York. She was the sister of Mary, Robert and Martha. They lived on N. Church St.

She graduated from Morgantown High School, class of 1952, and attended the Assembly of God church in Morgantown. She was married to Linn Boggs in 1952 in Morgantown, Indiana.

Rachel worked for a time as the telephone operator in Morgantown. Rachel and her family lived in Morgantown until 1960 when they moved to Evansville. The family then moved to Nashville, Indiana in 1964 where Lin Boggs was the Standard Oil agent for Brown County. Rachel managed the family business from their home. In 1970 the family left Indiana and moved to Fort Myers, Florida. Rachel returned to Indiana for good in 1992. Her last residence was the Cambridge Square Apartments on Pete Ellis Drive in Bloomington.

Rachel is survived by her three loving sons, Steve Boggs, Gary Boggs and Kent Boggs; and her daughter-in-law's Rosie, Tina and Rhonda; who she loved dearly. She had seven grandchildren; and fifteen great grandchildren; she is also survived by her sister Martha Miller.

Rachel was preceded in death by her parents, her infant girl Debra, and beloved daughter-in-law Angie, her sister Mary Casanova, and a brother Robert York.
