

Ram P. Parab

November 15, 2012

Ram P. Parab, 58 of Bloomington, IN passed away Thursday November 15, 2012 at IU Health Bloomington Hospital. He was born in Mumbai, India to Pundalik and Gulab Parab.

Ram was the owner of the Shanti Indian Restaurant in Bloomington for fifteen years.

Surviving family members include his wife, Sheri Parab of Bloomington, son, GR also of Bloomington, brother, Vilas Parab and his wife Geeta of New York, brother, Vijay of India, sister, Neelam of New York, two nephews and one niece of USA.

Services will be held on Saturday November 17, 2012 from 4-6pm at Allen Funeral Home 4155 S. Old State Road 37 Bloomington, IN.

Memorial Contributions may be sent to the Bloomington Humane Society or Riley Children's Hospital.

Allen Funeral Home is handling arrangements. Friends can send condolences to www.allenfuneralhome.org

Tribute Wall

GI

“ I am so sorry to hear about Mr Ram's untimely death. I have known him since he opened Shanti. He was always so kind and warm to us and always served us w/ some complimentary dish. My whole family knew him and used to look forward to visiting Shanti and get to see Ram. My heart goes out to his wife, son and family. Sorry for being late, I just returned to U.S. after a long trip.

Girdhar, Malathi, Sarika

Girdhar Agarwal - March 22, 2013 at 08:17 AM

TR

“ I visited Shanti many, many times and the owner was always a very kind man. I always got a mango yogurt drink while I waited. I would look forward to my treat from him when I visited. It's the small things you do for people that make a big difference. My condolences to the family.

Tracey - March 22, 2013 at 08:17 AM

CH

“ I am so sorry for your loss Shari and Gulab. Ram was a wonderful man and will be sorely missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family

Chris Matthews - March 22, 2013 at 08:17 AM

BO

“ I was so sorry to hear of Ram's death. My friends and I always enjoyed our times at Shanti thanks in part to Ram's graciousness and hospitality. My thoughts and condolences are with you.

Bobby Overman - March 22, 2013 at 08:17 AM

AN

“ I was so sad to read of Ram's death. He was so generous to me and my late husband, Rupert. Then after Rupert's death, Ram went overboard giving my friends and me more food. He was such a kind man so focused on the best hospitality for his dinner guests. Many of us miss Shanti, but most of all we miss seeing Ram and Sheri.

Anne Fraker - March 22, 2013 at 08:17 AM

PA

“ Gretchen and I were surprised and dismayed to find Ram's obituary in yesterday's newspaper. He was a good man, always kind, cheerful, and caring of others. We enjoyed seeing him at the Shanti, where he was an excellent host, and this enjoyment was...I am sure...shared by many others. Sheri and GR, please accept our condolences, and please know that we shall be thinking of you as we remember Ram.

paul kuznets - March 22, 2013 at 08:17 AM

CA

“ Shanti was the first Indian restaurant in Bloomington. It was a great joy to us when it opened. We enjoyed many wonderful meals there through the years.

Carol Parks - March 22, 2013 at 08:17 AM

LA

“ I am sorry to read of your loss. My quilting friends had a tradition of meeting at Shanti for dinner. It was always a fun evening enhanced by Ramji's graciousness and enjoyment of our laughter which sometimes was rather loud. Namaste

Laurie Eynon - March 22, 2013 at 08:17 AM

RM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences! Ram-ji was always so kind to all of us from India Studies at the university. I hadn't even been aware that he was ill. We've missed seeing him since the restaurant closed, and will miss him even more now. I'm so very sorry for your loss. bari afsos hai.

Rebecca

Rebecca Manring - March 22, 2013 at 08:17 AM