“ Brother Raymond was part of the young peoples' ministry at the old church on Henderson Street with Rev. Lee Coffman and his Wife, Sister Catherine Coffman in the early '70s. Brother Raymond was an easy-going man who loved God. He set a great example of being a family man who loved his wife and boys! He was involved in many activities with the young people. Encouraging us to be active in the church with singing, music, and memory Bible Verse Quotes on Tuesday Nights for the Young People Service and the Church. He along with Sister Esther Hyde took us on outings and had get-togethers for all of the young people. Brother Raymond will be greatly missed and my heartfelt prayers go out to all of their family.
