

Richard J. Scritchfield

May 23, 1944 - March 7, 2015

Richard J. Scritchfield of Bloomington passed away peacefully Saturday, March 7, 2015 at his residence.

"Scritch" was a lifelong Bloomington resident, widely known for his quick wit, and was deeply respected by all who crossed his path.

His professional career in various automotive businesses was unparalleled.

He will be missed by his loving wife Shannon, daughters Dawn VanBeber of Greeley, Colorado, Babbette Keel (Sam), Boca Raton, Florida, granddaughters Michelle and Brittany VanBeber, Greeley, Colorado and sister Ann Scritchfield Miller of Bloomington , as well as the Brian Yeatman, and Brett Howard families and a host of dear friends. He was preceded in death by his parents Logan and Penny and his brother Tom.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 South Old Highway 37 is handling the arrangements and a private family memorial will be held at a future date. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer Association at www.alz.org/donate and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

Tribute Wall

TK

“ Shannon, so sorry for your loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

Tracy Koontz - October 26, 2015 at 04:01 PM

JO

“ Dear Ann and Family, I am so sorry to hear this sad news that Dick (as my family knew him in his youth) has passed away. We were neighbors on Viva Drive in the very olden days of 50s and 60s and knew Dick (and his brother Tom) as Ann's handsome big brothers with cars. With love from childhood neighbors Joanne, Mark, Bruce. joanneleeshaver@gmail.com

Joanne Shaver - October 26, 2015 at 04:01 PM

JR

“ Our thoughts are with the entire family. Scritch was so good to us; jobs while we were in college, cards with Shannon and he; and just a caring non judgemental character that is rare. I will treasure sweet memories of him. Peace to you all.

Jean & Alan Cunningham and Riggs - October 26, 2015 at 04:01 PM

EL

“ Scritch was a part of our family as long as I can remember. I have heard people say that blood is thicker than water but I have always felt like love was the glue that binds. Scritch had a heart as big as they come. I will really miss being able to give Scritch a hard time and laughing at his antics. Goodbye good friend, rest in peace.

Ellen McGlothlin - October 26, 2015 at 04:01 PM

TW

“ The only thing more difficult than dying is having to lose someone else and continue living. It's funny how tough life can be, but it's worth it!! I hope your memories will continue to be comforting.

Peace,

Tara Woods Pierson & Duane Hardwick

Tara Woods Pierson - October 26, 2015 at 04:01 PM

MI

“ Annie and Family, so sorry for the loss of your brother. I remember he was always so helpful fixing my old junkers when he had the Marathon station on Leonard Springs Rd. You are in our thoughts, dear friend.

Mike and Lana Allen

michael allen - October 26, 2015 at 04:01 PM