“ Rick was such a wonderful man - I just talked to him 2 weeks ago - he was checking on me because my brother was diagnosed with terminal lung cancer in March - as always - thinking of others and helping me through my challenges in life. I too will remember the big hugs, like when I saw him a couple of weeks ago and of course his good cologne.. he would smile if he were here reading this right now. My prayers are with you all during such a tough time, he's in heaven, looking down on us all. God is taking care of him now. I'm here for any of you if you need me- any family of Ricks is family of mine. Love to all... Deb

“ Chico and family, our hearts are broken ever since we heard the news. We traveled to Sturgis many times together and you were with us at many Boogies where your smile made the difference to so many but especially us. Your hugs were always a joy to recieve and an even greater BLESSING was the many times you would tell tell me how very much you loved me. The call news years day when we talked for such a long time and you said you would come out here to see us when we knew it would not happen. A TRUE brother is very rare to find but you showed yourself to be one of the few. Weather we wore the same patch or not ours was a bond of heritage because we were both Sons of GOD as it was in our Heavenly DNA. It will take a LONG time for this wound in our hearts to heal but you shall always be in there my FRIEND and we are so THANKFUL GOD brought us together. Till we meet again, PRAISE the LORD. “ Rick was a good person, he was always first in line to help others. My heart aches for his family, boys and friends. From Jr High on Rick saved me a seat on the school bus, he was my friend, my protector...what ever he thought I needed; he would have helped me in anyway. We have always been close, and it did not matter how long it had been or where we were, he had a big "ole bear hug" for me. I still have a copy of the Bond-Slaves MC hand out he handed me at Walmart. He was never ashamed to tell others about the Lord and always was trying to pass on the love of Christ. You never know how much you love someone until they are gone. Rick Grubb will be missed, he was truly one of the good guys. I never felt nothing buy LOVE around Rick, my FRIEND!

“ We are so sorry to hear about the loss of "Chico" , our thoughts and prayers, are with the family & friends. Gary had worked on "chico's" bike for many years, & he always would bring Gary back a tshirt if he went on any trips. After Gary stopped working at the shops, he then came here to the house. He was a long time buddy. He was a good man, may God be with everyone during these tough times. I would like to share a memory of him with everyone, he would always act like he pulled a quarter out of our kids' ears, when they were little. He was good with kids.
