Bought a trailer from them on the west side of town and was their neighbor.

Had no idea that first night how our lives would intertwine and Bob helped us with many things and was like having family close by.

Always enjoyed conversations with him about God and I know firsthand that he is home safe in our lords arms.

Was a God fearing man and I am very proud to say not only that I knew him but that he was my friend!

*Pr 🙏 Ying for hus loved ones!

“ Our neighbor for over 24 years! He was our family! He was the only Grandpa our daughter really ever known he held that role proudly never missed her milestones. Their ice cream runs and dinner dates will forever be etched in my mind. Thank you for loving her she is a better person because of you! These last few days looking across to your yard with many tears I know life out here will never be the same We will forever miss you I love you forever Bob..we will watch over Janet While you watch over us until we meet again!

“ Bob was an amiable soul who is already missed on this earth. I’m grateful for his military service, and I’m definitely grateful for his baking service—though the breads I sampled usually bore Dana’s or Tammara’s name, I found that they delighted my taste buds all the same! My deepest condolences to Janet and all the family.
