To The Boyken Families, My heartfelt prayers and sympathy to all of you on the loss of Bob. He was a very nice man and I remember him fondly when I lived in Algona, Iowa. I use to have a paper route and I remember he took over my route as my family was moving to Minnesota in 1970. He was always very helpful and understanding and always took great pride in everything he did. He will be missed by many friends and family. His Christmas Season will be spent with Jesus in Heaven. Rest In Peace Bob-You have earned your crown in Gods Glorious Heaven. May You Rest In Peace Always. With Prayers and Sympathy, Mark J. VonBank- Park Rapids, Minnesota (formerly of Algona, Iowa).

“ Dear Judy, Melissa, and John:

I know death, yet no words can really express what sadness you are feeling at the death of your husband/dad. It's is sad because your husband/dad is missing from your human life, yet a happy occasion because Bob is with his Father, whom I know he dearly loved. I pray that you be blessed with Jesus' strength and courage to carry you through this trial and, according to God's time, may He bring peace and contentment back into your lives. Until then, please know that those who love you are praying for you. Remember...I love you! Take care, my Friends...

Blessings, hugs, and much love...Arlene

“ I was very shocked and saddened by Bob's passing. He was a wonderful man who knew how to light up a room or even a persons' day in a phone call. It was an honor knowing him and we have all been blessed that God shared him with us. Bob, may you rest peacefully in God's care.

“ Dear Judith, Melissa, and John,
We are grieved for your loss of your husband, and father, Bob. How can it be true? It feels like a bad dream that you will awaken from.

Bob was such a wonderful person, and he touched so many lives. He was a blessing to everyone who knew him. He will be missed by many people, both near and far.

Melissa, I've been pondering your favorite passage these past few days, and how appropriate it seems right now. Proverbs 3:6
"Trust in The Lord with all thine heart; and lean not on your own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths."

“ To Judith, John, and Melissa:

Again, words cannot express my sorrow in the passing of Bob. He was an awesome individual and man of God. Bob will also be in my heart as well as you all. Bob was such an encouragement and help to me while I was in college and I will never forget that.

Allow me to show you some comfort from Scripture as you walk through this chapter. I know it is a familiar passage and I am sure you will be hearing it for a while but hold to these words as you think about Bob's passing and I am sure it will bring you comfort:

I Thessalonians 4:13-18

13 But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. 14 For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. 15 For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. 17 Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. 18 Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Paul told us to comfort each other with these words and that is what I am doing. We will all be reunited someday in Heaven. I cannot wait! Just know I am praying for you all. Sorry I cannot be there in person but know I am with you in Spirit.

Adrian*
