October 7, 1932 - August 11, 2020

Robert E. "Bob" Morrow, Sr., 87, of Bloomington IN died peacefully Tuesday, August 11, 2020 at the IU Health Bloomington Hospital.

He was born on October 7, 1932 in Muncie IN. He married his beloved wife Judith C. "Judy" Morrow on June 16, 1956. Bob is survived by his three children, Bill Morrow, Cam (husband Mike) Nahas and Rob (wife Talinda) Morrow Jr., grandchildren Adam (wife Felicity) Nahas, Mason Morrow-Isles, Catherine (husband Steven) Comstock, Ian Morrow-Isles and Madelyn Nahas, great-grandchildren Mackenzie and Gavin Comstock and Penelope Nahas. He is also survived by his two sisters-in-law, Maryann Rahe and Kay Nute. He was preceded in death by Judy, his parents Tom and Marguerite (Haughey) Morrow, his siblings Tom Morrow and Mary Costerison and siblings-in-law Pat Morrow, Heisel "Junior" Costerison and TR Rahe.

Bob was a US Air Force Veteran serving during the end of the Korean War in the Far East Air Force (FEAF) in Japan, primarily as a draftsman, manager of the baseball team, and right guard for the football team.

Bob was a retired proud member of the Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers' international Union of America, former member of the Knights of Columbus, a volunteer for Judy's philanthropic society (a Delta Theta "Pa") and a driver for Meals on Wheels. Bob loved wood working projects and working around his house and yard. He was a favorite of his grandkids and great-grandkids; always stealing their noses and talking "duck-speak". The family is especially grateful for the assistance from Help at Home (thank you Antoinette!).
