“ Though we didn't know you long, the time we met we instantly felt a kinship. Your much to young to be gone so soon. You will be sorely missed by all who loved you. Rest in Peace Robert. God has gained another angel.

“ I remember meeting Robert when I was only 15 or so. He and his mother, Phyllis, purchased GRIT newspaper from me. I was always interested in what was in the garage. He would let me hang around the shop and see his handy work. He truly had a gift. He brought me in and shared his knowledge with me. He gave me a job and helped me to understand more about cars and trucks. I already loved old cars anyway so this was just awesome. I remember getting to ride in his '66 442 right after the rotisserie rebuild. We took off our shoes so we didn't get the new carpet dirty! We left our shoes on the driveway right outside the car so we could put them back on when we got back. I had a great time working with him and sharing in his love and knowledge and love of classic cars and trucks. He became more like a brother to me and I'll always remember the bond we shared. Even though we seldom spoke or visited, things were just like we had spoken yesterday. That's what family and true friends do. I'll miss you my brother.
