“ I didn't know Bobby personally but I sure felt like I did. I am Paul Greene's niece (his brother from another mother) and through stories involving those two who were inseparable, I felt like I knew him. He was always there for Paul and I think each other's partner in crime. Life is not about the family we are born into but the bond we share with those that we choose to make our family. We should all be so lucky to have a friendship in our lives equivalent to what these two shared. My deepest condolences to Bobby's family and friends. Rest in peace Bobby as it's your turn to make Heaven just a little brighter.
