“ Having lost my own father in my early twenties, I always looked to "Mr. Wetnight" as someone I could count on to get good advice on just about any topic, but mostly about raising a family and making good decisions. One of those good decisions was to work for Bloomington Paint and Wallpaper, where I have been for over 30 years. I remember him back in the day coming into the store with his coat over his arm and a pipe in his mouth, and everyone better be on their toes because he didn't put up with much nonsense. He commanded a lot of respect and he got it from me. But he was a very nice man, always asking me about the kids and my wife Angie and how everyone was doing. He was one of a kind and I am very glad and lucky to have known him

“ All my sympathy to his family at this difficult time. May you find comfort in your love and memories of him. I was Bob's caregiver for the past three years and it was the best time of my life. It was such a pleasure and a privilege to spend time with him and care for him. He was such a wonderful human being, who was so admired and respected. He was kind, thoughtful, always smiling and so much more. My world was blessed by his presence! I miss him greatly and have a hard time imaging the world without him in it. He was larger than life and touched so many lives in such a positive way. Rest in peace my sweet friend!!! Tammy

“ It is with deep sadness and a real sense of loss that I learned of Bob's passing! Bob was a special friend! His gracious support and leadership as a trustee of the church lightened my administrative load. But mostly I will always cherish the periodic lunches we had together. It was then that we became true friends while sharing both our professional and family stories.

Now may the loving Heavenly Father hug you all and Bob tight in His everlasting arms!

“ When I saw Bob's obituary Wednesday afternoon I could not hold back the tears. This world, at least mine, became less pleasant. I first met Bob in 1973 when I responded to an employment ad. He decided to give me a chance even after I told him that if I earned enough money I was going back to grad school. From that day on my wife and I became part of Bob and Edie's family. When my own father died in 1975 Bob gave me the strength and hope I needed for the future and was like a gloating grandfather to my oldest son who was born later that same year. As time passed my second son was born in 1977 and it became common on chicken night at the Elks for Bob to take credit for being the grandfather of the two young boys sitting at his table. The hardest part about my decision to go to Law School in 1984 was telling Bob that I was leaving the paint store. His lessons about business and life have always inspired me to accomplish more than I ever dreamed I could. Thank-you Bob, my mentor, my friend. The world will miss you, I know I do...David.

“ I have known Bob only since Christmas week of 2014. Dee baked cookies for nearby neighbors in our new surroundings of Windetmere Woods. We were invited into Bob's home and had a wonderful welcome and great visit. In the ensuing months, Bob and I enjoyed many great conversations about - everything! I have been greatly enriched by becoming acquainted with a wonderful gentleman, and will be forever grateful. Rest in peace, Robert!

“ Sympathies to Bob & Pat, their family and all of the extended family. Uncle Bob was the epitome of what he referred to as "good people". He was special enough to have made everyone else feel special in his company. We were so lucky to have had him in our lives for so long. He leaves a lasting legacy.
