

Robert Leonard

June 13, 1919 - June 29, 2009

Robert R. Leonard age 90, passed away at his residence June 29, 2009. He was born on June 13, 1919 to Ralph and Lillian Freese Leonard at Taylorsville, Ohio. He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers, Harold, Paul, and Richard Vaugh. One younger sister resides in the Troy, OH area.

He served military duty in WW II from August 23, 1944 to January 8, 1946 in the Asiatic Pacific Theater. He was wounded in action and was awarded the Purple Heart. His life's work was carpentry. He excelled in finish work... He was involved in both residential and commercial building.

He attended The Life Church in Bloomington, IN, pastored by Rev. Phillip Amandola.

Robert is survived by his wife, Betty A. Hulse Leonard of Bloomington. Also surviving him are four children, Barbara Thomas of Bloomfield, IN, Rebecca Lamar of Bloomington, IN, David Leonard of Turlock, CA, Sharon Patterson of Miami, FL, and three foster children, Linda Neher of Greenwood, IN, Darrell Westbrook of Clayton, MO., and Winona Westbrook of Cary, IL. He has eight grandchildren, eleven great grand-children and six great-great grandchildren.

The funeral will be at the Allen Funeral Home on Thursday, July 2, 2009 at 11:00am. Visitation will be from 10am-11am on Thursday. Rev. Philip Amandola and Elder Scott Elkins will be officiating. Burial will follow at the Walnut Grove Cemetery in Greene Co.

Allen Funeral Home is handling arrangements