“ Recently, I had an opportunity to spend the day with my brother, just us. He told someone that day when they asked who I was that I was his "little sister", and he had been trying to get rid of me for 46 years and I wouldn't get the hint. We laughed when he told the guy he potty trained me and taught me to tie my shoes. That stuck with me, and the day after he passed away I thought of him each time I did those things and still do.....I love you Big Brother! We will meet again...And laugh!

“ I have been reading all the well wishes,thought's and prayers for our family in this difficult time. I haven't been home much in the past 30 years, but when I am it's like I never left. We have always been very close and the tragic untimely passing of my brother has left a void in my heart that I keep full of the memories we made together. Most recently a trip my father and he made to Virginia. Rob told me that every morning when he opened his eyes he thanked God he had a chance for one more day.I'm not a church going man but believe me when I say I have asked god for one more day with my brother.I already miss him.

“ You have my deepest sympathy and prayers for you Stephanie, and family. Scott was a very sweet guy and a great inspiration to alot of people, I know when he came into where I worked and if I was having a bad day he would say something kind and it would cheer me up. May God Bless you all and comfort you thru this very sad time.

“ Dear Mr. Ted, Ms. Sandy, Stephanie and Matt. I was so shocked and heart broken to hear about Scott's sudden passing. I had the opportunity this past summer to reconnect with all of you during Gordon's Glory Days weekend. All of us had such a great visit and shared stories and laughed and laughed; it was a great time of fellowship. Scott was such a big teddy bear to me when I first moved to Bedford. He was Stephanie's PERTECTOR "not that she needed one!" I have such fond memories of being around the Kline home during my high school years; I felt so much love, true family spirit and closeness from everyone. I was really in awe of what Ms. Sandy and Mr. Ted created on the hill. I wanted to BE a part of that specialness; I can't imagine the loss of your son, and my herat goes out to all of the family and his children. I'm asking our Lord to wrap you up in his LOVE right now, and to bring you PEACE in knowing that Scott is with Him. XOXO Lora Ellen. Scott you will be missed.

“ Ted/Sandy, While growing up with Scott, Matt and Stephanie I regularly called you both Mom and Dad because we were all so very close and i spent so much time in your home. You all made me feel so loved and welcomed. I want to thank you for that. I've always had the utmost respect for you and I still do. I regret over the years that we've drifted apart and not kept in touch. The news of your loss of Scott really hits home and makes me miss you all even more because I think of how close we all were at that time in our lives. Gosh, we really had the best times together. We all saw each other through some good and bad times. I only remember the good. To; Matt and Stef, I can't imagine loosing my brother, I can only imagine life without him and it hurts just to think about it. I'm sure it's alot harder and more painfull than I can't possibly fathom the loss you both feel. My Love and payers are with you all. I'd love to hear from you. Love Dave

“ I was very blessed to have known Scott. He taught me so much about the Lord. His generosity was never ending. He was quick to make you you smile, and if you needed straightend out he would do that too. He was never in too much pain to worry and take care of another if he knew there was a need to be filled. He was all about living life to the fullest for today is a gift from God. Scotty was also a gift from God to all who knew him. He will be missed, until we see you again my friend on the other side.
