

Rodger Clay Fancher

August 3, 1943 - June 23, 2012

Rodger Clay Fancher, age 68 of Springville passed away Saturday June 23, 2012 at IU Health Hospital Hospice House. He was born on August 3, 1943 to Marguratte Fancher in California. Rodger received his BS in accounting from Cal Poly and spent his professional career as a CPA in the Oakland and Danville, California areas. Upon retirement Rodger and his late wife Nancy Louise Allen Fancher moved to the Springville area and maintained their interest in financial interests and publications and expanded their hobbies to include the horses they had on their farm. Rodger was widely known as an affable man that had a passion for good humor as well. He leaves behind his son David Clay Fancher of California; daughter Charlene L. Wadsworth of California; a sister Rowena Sloan of Oregon; several grandchildren, nieces and nephews; his companion Brenda C. Artis of Columbus, Indiana; brother in law Dr. Lawrence E. Allen and his wife Renee of Anderson; sister in law Judith Diane Collins of Heltonville, and brother in law David L. Allen of Carlsbad, California. He was preceded in death by his mother, his wife, and his wife's parents Leonard and Dorothy Rayl Allen. Graveside services will be held on Thursday June 28th , 1pm at Valhalla Memory Gardens. Allen Funeral Home 4155 South Old Highway 37 is handling the arrangements and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

Tribute Wall

DF

“ I miss both my Mom and Dad, they're were two of the greatest people I ever knew, My Life is far too empty without them. My Sunday Afternoons have not been the same without the familiar voices on the other end of the phone.

David Fancher - October 26, 2015 at 04:17 PM

MY

“ So sorry about the passing of Rodger; he was truly a pleasant person and a joy to know. He will missed at Woodhaven Church. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. God Bless.

Myla Meadows - October 26, 2015 at 04:17 PM

BO

“ Rodger was a wonderful person who I was fortunate to have as a friend. He will be greatly missed.

Bob Wasick - October 26, 2015 at 04:17 PM