

Roger Craig Hunt

February 4, 1933 - December 20, 2010

Roger Craig Hunt, 77, of Bloomington died on Monday, Dec. 20, 2010 at Golden Living Center in Bloomington. He was born on Feb. 4, 1933 the son of Charles W. and Mary (Blough) Hunt. He retired as a retail sales manager in the ceramic and stone tile business. He also held positions in teaching, government service and sales. He was a U.S. Army veteran of the Korean War.

His survivors include his daughter Holly Chaille, Holly's husband Tom and their daughter Claire, of Ft. Wayne, IN; his son-in-law Jay Showalter and his daughters Ping and Thea of Bloomington, and his son Craig, Craig's wife Bevin and their daughters, Neassa, Sinead, and Aine, of White Plains, NY and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Mary (Callahan) Hunt, two brothers, Jack Hunt and Phillip and his daughter, Elizabeth (Lissa) Eve Hunt.

Memorial services will be held on Friday, Dec. 31st at the Unitarian Universalist Church, 2120 N. Fee Lane in Bloomington. Friends may greet the family at a reception following the service.

Roger was a Mark Twain aficionado and an avid poker and horse player. "The Impartial Friend: Death, the only immortal who treats us all alike, whose pity and whose peace and whose refuge are for all—the soiled and the pure, the rich and the poor, the loved and the unloved."

Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhom

e.org.

Tribute Wall

AH

“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of Roger, though it's been many years, now. I know the sting of loss doesn't go away. So wish I had gotten to know Roger, my great uncle. Not sure I ever even met him, but always heard about him. Roger was always regarded as the functional one lol

He was brother to my paternal grandfather, Jack. My grandpa was a tortured soul, as was their other brother, Phillip. Today I believe they would been diagnosed and treated, and perhaps led much more fulfilling lives.

I miss Roger, and I never even knew him. Just wanted to give a shout out to some of my blood relatives I've always been curious about.

(My dad is Keith Hunt)

With love,

April Y Hunt

Stringflower7@gmail.com

April Hunt - March 22, 2022 at 08:11 AM

CA

“ Holly and Craig,
Sorry I can't make it down but I wanted you to know I am thinking of you.

Carol Simmons - October 26, 2015 at 04:28 PM