“ I am Rogers grand daughter Sheena, one of 8 that was not mentioned in his obituary, along with my mother Debbie, my aunt Renee and uncle Roger. Seems a little ridiculous that in this time is is ok to not only forget important people in his life that loved him.
(Even if we were not there at the end) we still loved him and we still matter. So thank you Sabrina Walker for showing who you are still.

“Joyce and family--I have so many fond memories of Roger. He worked with our department at Indiana University Dining Services--delivering milk to the residence halls during the early morning hours--smiling and teasing the staff! A remarkable man--so very sorry for your loss. Please know my thoughts are with you.

My condolences to the family. “Ol Rog” (his words, not mine) was such a good guy. I met him at IU when I started working in the dining halls and he was our milkman. He was instrumental in getting me together with my husband, Jim the Chesty man in 1977. Everyone loved Roger. How could you not?! He will surely be missed.

Thank you for the kind words Sandra. He loved his job because of the people like yourself that he saw everyday. He loved everyone there including the students. He was so good to me and my family and we all loved him more than we can say. His daughter Sabrina has been with him daily until he passed.
