

Roger Lee Jacobs

September 29, 1929 - June 22, 2026

Roger Lee Jacobs, age 96, passed away at Bell Trace in Bloomington, IN, on Monday, June 22, 2026, surrounded by family. Born on September 29, 1929, to Albert and Nettie Jacobs, Roger lived a life marked by kindness, generosity, and unwavering devotion to those he loved. A proud United States Army Veteran, Roger served his country with honor during the Korean War.

Roger was a master in making repairs and a tool and die machinist. In life, Roger took immense enjoyment in his garden, providing an abundance of fresh vegetables every year to family, neighbors, and friends. Nothing made him happier than a house full of loved ones sharing a Sunday dinner. Roger was a member of the New Unionville Baptist Church and a testament to the affection and respect he inspired in all who knew him.

Roger is survived by his sons, Allen (Margie) Jacobs, Jeff (Shelly) Jacobs, and Jay (Kathy) Jacobs; 8 grandchildren; 16 great grandchildren; and 3 great great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 60 years, Joann Jacobs; his son, Mark Jacobs; and 11 siblings.

Services will be held at Allen Funeral Home on Friday, June 26th, 2026, (4155 S. Old State Road 37, Bloomington, IN 47401) with the visitation from 10-11:30am and the funeral service at 11:30am. Burial will follow at Valhalla Memory Gardens with military honors.

“ We became acquainted with Roger at Brown County Health and Living. It was a honor to talk with him who shared his breakfast table with our Dad also Korean Vet. He was so kind and shared his room filled with photos of his family, so proud of each of you. Spoke of his wife and her peach cobbler, she made the best he said!He was a amazing soul and our prayers for Gods comfort to you all. Heaven will be sweet!
