“ Roger (and Tracy too) was like a big brother to me. They were always good to me, looked out for me and took care of me on the school bus or wherever we were. When I got my first dirt bike, they were much better riders and had larger bikes. But they would still come down and get me and let me ride with them. They taught me how to jump that little mini trail 50 I had. They taught me how to be tough and how to be a good person. Roger turned me on to KISS and I just HAD to have an album for Christmas that next year...Mom had no idea what she was buying. (for a 9 year old), There was nothing better than growing up on the old home place with family, we made so many memories and we really were raised like siblings. Most people don't have that and I am blessed to have had a guy like Roger to look up to all those years. We didn't see each other a lot after we all grew up, but when we did see each other, it was like we never missed a beat. Thanks Roger, for always being there to look out for me, you were the best big brother I could ask for.

“ Roger I have not seen you since you were little, but I know for certain you were so so loved by your family and all that knew you! You've gained your Angel Wings way too early, but God must've needed your help in Heaven as He only takes the Best. We all know that you'll always watch over your family especially with all the love between you all. SO so many prayers, hugs and much much love you to your family esp Glenda, your wife, your neices Becky and Terry, who were more like your sisters, your brothers and your neices and nephews. Gods blessing to you all in such a very very difficult time now and the days ahead. All of our Love, Jan (Morrison) and Brue Bakalyar Lakefield, Minnesota

“ My Dear sweet Bub, I have loved you since the day you were born and you came home to live with us while your Dad was still in the service. From that day to your last you were my little brother. You were so special to us in ways I cant even explain. A piece of me is with you, my arms forever wrapped around you with all my love. You were always such a kind caring boy and then a man but forever MY little brother. I will be forever broken without you. I love you Bub forever and always.

Aunt Becky.
