

Ronald Duke Malone

March 21, 1932 - April 27, 2024

Ronald Duke Malone, age 92, of Bloomington, Indiana passed away on April 27, 2024 surrounded by family.

He was born to Walter Robert Malone and Minnie Kemp (Duke) Malone on March 21, 1932 in DeFeated, Tennessee and grew up in Carthage, Tennessee. Ronald is survived by daughters Lynn (Cliff) Fancher of Conroe, Texas and Leslie (Ellis) Richardson of Bloomington, and son Robert (Liz) Malone of Monrovia, Indiana, eight grandchildren, twelve great grandchildren and one great great grandson. He was preceded in death by his wife of 55 years, Reva Mae (Barnard) Malone, his parents and a sister Rosemary (Malone) Miller.

Ronald graduated from Smith County High School (1950) in Carthage, Tennessee. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Business Management from Tennessee Polytechnic Institute in 1954. Ronald served two years in the U.S. Army in the Signal Corp and completed his service time as a First Lieutenant.

Upon completion of his education and his time in the army, Ronald began his career in business and manufacturing. Ronald worked for three years as a sales representative for Burroughs Business Machines in Terre Haute, Indiana. Ronald then moved to Bloomington and began working for RCA in management. He was employed by RCA for approximately thirty years, retiring in 1989.

Ronald enjoyed fishing and mushroom hunting. He was a member of the Sherwood Oaks Christian Church.

The family would like to thank the staff at the IU Health Hospice House for their loving care. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to IU Health Hospice or Sherwood Oaks Christian Church, both of Bloomington.

A private graveside service will be held at a later date.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Allen Funeral Home in Bloomington.

Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.allencares.com.
