“ I taught Ron Scott as a middle school band director at the former Unionville Middle School. As a tuba player. Ron sat in the back and it was always a joy to look over the band and see his smiling face in the back. As a beginning teacher, he was a joy to teach and never critical of my many errors as a newbie teacher. I will never forget him. Rest in God's arms. Ron.

“ My friend and helper has gone. I will miss him so much. But God our Lord will be with us. I pray for his family. I pray for continuous Joy which he used to share with the family although he is not there. God bless the family. God bless the Church he used to be. God bless us all as his fellow members of church of christ. May God retrieve our pain as we are remembering the goodness he shared with us whilst he was with us.
