“ to my aunt and cousins
my thoughts are with you in this difficult time. although i never saw you much, i remember as a child when we would all get together it was a happy time. Although i did not know your dad well, he always shook my hand with a firm Indiana resolve, always smiled and always seemed to maybe, just maybe, have a little mischief behind his eyes.
love to all from Texas

“ I remember when I first moved back to Bloomington in 92. I went to an interview at RCA. After the interview I seen Ron outside on lunch break. He took me in and gave me a personal tour of the entire plant that I don't think was supposed to be done. He handed me some safety glasses and said "Ah heck, your all dressed with that tie and all. They'll just think your an engineer or something"! That still makes me laugh. Thanks Ron!
