“ Ron, Linda & Family -

I am so sorry for your loss. I'll always remember Ronson as the little boy I grew up with on Southway Drive. He sure loved to play Monopoly! I didn't have the opportunity to know him as an adult, but by reading others' comments it sounds like he was a good man. I will be praying for you and the rest of your family.

“ Ronson and I went to school together from Batchelor throughout North. I remember helping him with a derby car, driving around with friends over the summers, and his sincere smile and humor which you could always count on. He was a close friend of mine, and words cannot express the feelings I have as I process this great loss. My heart is with his family and his other friends during this time.

"If you were once connected with someone, does it make sense that the connection is broken just because of a physical death? No, the connection stays. You may just have to listen differently. You may just have to talk differently. The truth is: the connection is never broken. It's quite impossible to break the most powerful connection in the universe. As long as you exist, the connection stays."

Ronson, you are loved and missed by many. Rest in Peace.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I went to school with Ronson. We were very close in middle school. Ronson would come over to my house everyday during the summer and we would watch Billy Madison. It is one of my fondest memories of middle school. I even remember that he rode his bike to my house one morning with syrup in a backpack (I didn't have any) so that I could make him french toast. I went with the family to his archery shoots and we even went to church together sometimes. My mother thought of him as another one of her children. We will miss him so much. He was an amazing friend and he always made me laugh. I konw that you all have a strong family but I want you all to know that your family extends further than you might know. I love all of you and will pray for you.

“ It saddens me that the world has lost this great man; I served with him in Afghanistan. He was always up beat and happy. He would stick up for his friends and anyone who needed a helping hand. There was not anything that he couldn't do or at least give it his best. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Rest in peace Brother!

“ To the family of Ronson; May the hope of heaven give you peace, and the tender touch of the Father bring you comfort in this time of such sorrow. My heart breaks for you and I pray you find peace.

To Ronson; I have missed you these last few years. You and Julie were so close for so many years and you became an important part of our family at such a young age. The last time I saw you, Dakota was just an infant and I was so happy for you. I remember that I couldn't believe how all of the "kids" I've known had become adults so quickly! I wanted so much to meet your new family. We promised to keep in touch, but unfortunately life keeps us all so busy. I always have, and always will consider you like one of my own children. Your memory lives forever in my heart. I love you and I know that whatever your struggles or pain, you are at peace now in the presence of God. Julie told me that God must have needed you in heaven for you to have left this world so soon. I agree.

“ I knew your son back when we were in the same unit in 173rd. At first he seemed shy to talk to me but, later we became friends. He was such a good person. I know how much he loved his family and I am sure they must be going through a hard time but, I just wanted to send my condolences to his family and may his memory live in our hearts.

“ I went to school with Ronson but we didn't say much to each other. All I know is that no matter who you are it's still a painful loss. I had no idea he was married with children and that makes my condolences even stronger for his family. I am very sorry for your loss and I hope you can find the strength to forgive.
