“ Rose was my next door neighbor, and the best one we ever had. She made the best goodies, including her famous no bake cookies. My husband and Rose spent many hours sharing yard/gardening tips with each other. I remember watching her (around age 79) carrying a long heavy ladder down the street to a neighbor who needed to borrow it. She would take no help, and said she could handle it herself. I watched her take apart and put together a riding lawn mower. She was jack of all trades, and master of many!!! We cried, prayed, and had many laughs together. I look forward to seeing her again in Glory!!
