“ Aunt Ruby had to be the best Aunt I think a kid could have. She had a great sense of humor. When we would come to visit she always had a unique way of speaking her mind that would have us in stitches. Once when my parents came to visit her in the nursing home, before she had gotten worse, my Dad asked her if she had sold her house. Ruby said, "no, I have three houses!" We laughed knowing Ruby that she might of been messing with my parents. (You had to understand the relationship). I beleive many nieces and nephews , (and grandchildren), would confer that Ruby loved kids. I think from what I remember she would of spoiled every last single one of us if she could. There are many memories from childhood and somewhat of adulthood too of Uncle Bob, Aunt Ruby and Dennis. They will be terribly missed. Our hearts and prayers go out to Julie and Jennifer, the Pope family, and the Jones family. Love Tom "Tommy" and Marcia Webster
