

Russell Lee Feuerbach

August 31, 1941 - September 21, 2015

Russell Lee Feuerbach, 74, of Bloomington, passed away September 21, 2015 at Bloomington Hospital. He was born on August 31, 1941, in Evansville, Indiana to Leo and Frances (Dirschauer) Feuerbach, who preceded him in death.

Russell graduated from Purdue University, received a Master's Degree from the University of Missouri and attended the I.U. School of Law. He was self-employed, a licensed auctioneer and a real estate broker. He was a member of Toast Masters and pursued political interests. Russell was the top marksman on the Purdue University traveling rifle team and enjoyed playing fast pitch softball, fishing, hunting, farming and gardening. He loved coaching his sons' baseball teams, attending cross country meets and any and all family events.

Russell became ill on June 28, 1998 and has survived numerous illnesses since that time that was nothing less than miraculous and amazing! Russell most definitely had a will to live.

Russell is survived by his wife, Sara Jane (Browning) Feuerbach, sons; Trenton Lee Feuerbach, Jason Russell Feuerbach and Travis Patrick Feuerbach (Sally), grandchildren; Alyssa Pestikas

Feuerbach, Ethan Russell Feuerbach, Spencer Steven Feuerbach, Hailey Nycole Feuerbach and Sophia Mae Feuerbach, sisters; Stelma Ioline Horn and Mary Kay Hawkins, brothers; Donald Ray Feuerbach and Robert Carl Feuerbach; many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Family will receive friends from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Monday, September 28, 2015 at Allen Funeral Home, 4155 South Old State Road 37. A funeral service will be held on Tuesday, September 29, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. at Allen Funeral Home. Burial will follow at Rose Hill Cemetery. You are invited to share a memory or leave an online condolence to Russell's family at www.allenfuneralhome.org

We, his family, will miss him so much. However, we will never forget, always treasure and hold dear our memories of this wonderful father and husband.
