

Ruth Douglas Scott

May 23, 1927 - August 19, 2017

Ruth Douglas Scott, 90, of Lexington KY, passed away on Saturday, August 19, 2017 at Stonecroft Health Campus, Bloomington IN.

She was born May 23, 1927, in Athens, Kentucky. The daughter of Lee and Carrie (James) Douglas. Ruth was a 1946 graduate of Athens High School in Athens, Kentucky. She married Winfred Lee Scott on June 23, 1948. Ruth enjoyed a 38 year career as an X-ray technician working at Good Samaritan Hospital in Lexington, Kentucky, Deaconess Hospital in Evansville, IN, and Floyd Memorial Hospital, in New Albany IN, and hospitals in Miami, and Tampa FL. She loved her children and grandchildren and they will fondly remember feeling greatly loved by her, as well as her warm sense of humor. She enjoyed a rich childhood with her 9 sisters, one brother and parents, while growing up on a more than modest Kentucky tobacco farm. As an adult, she enjoyed playing cards, cooking, gardening, her religion, spending time in the sun and the University of Kentucky Wildcats. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

Ruth is survived by her daughter: Jody (Debra Mitchell) May of Bloomington, her two sons: Terry (Shelly) Scott of Albuquerque, NM, Mark (Sherrie) Scott of Lexington, KY, four grandchildren; Samson (Blake) May, Maryellen May, Michael (Debbie) May, Chris (Sabrina) Scott, and seven great grandchildren, her fraternal twin sister; Marge (Chuck) Dunphy of Cloudland, GA, two nieces, Janie Fields, and Pennie Maze, and one nephew Michael Moore.

She is preceded in death by her husband and grandson Zachary May.

A private burial will take place for the family in Athens, Kentucky, at a later date. Memorial contributions may be made in Ruth's name to your favorite charity. You are invited to share a memory or leave an online condolence to the family at www.allencares.com
