

Ruth Hunter

April 17, 1929 - April 16, 2013

Ruth (Rogers) Hunter, age 83 of Bloomington, passed away Tuesday afternoon in her home. She was born in Bloomington to Lloyd and Colleen Rogers. Ruth's hobbies included bowling and mushroom hunting. Her passion was taking care of her family and home. Even in her last days, thinking of her great grandchildren is what brought her the most joy. Ruth is survived by one daughter and son-in-law, Susan and Brian Rider of Carmel; 6 grandchildren, Kristi and Kyle Powell of Westfield, Kurt and Carley Rider of Louisville, and Jacob and Sara Hunter of Bloomington; 4 great-grandchildren, Abby Powell, Emmy Powell, Sean Holland, and Cadence Hunter; 2 sisters, Marcene (Rogers) Eads and Joan (Rogers) White, and one brother, Gerald Rogers, all of Bloomington; and many nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by her husband of 50 years, Richard "Dick" Hunter and two sons, Walter Hunter and Richard "Rich" Hunter. Visitation will be held on Saturday afternoon, April 20th, from 12:00-2:00 at Allen Funeral Home, 4155 S. Old State Road 37, Bloomington, IN, with the funeral service immediately following at 2:00. Burial will take place at Clear Creek Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.

“ So sorry to hear about Ruth. I knew her through Rich at work and I thought she was a great gal (spunky!!). My thoughts and prayers are with you Susan, Jake, and the rest of the Hunter clan. She is now reunited with Dick and her boys whom I know she has been missing dearly.

Take care,
Janelle Benedict
