“ So sorry to hear of your loss,jenny,and family. Not that long ago I was going through pics and came across one of you and Ryan as a baby. I remember when I would stay the night,when it was time to get up,your mom would put him in the bed and he would crawl all over our heads and pull our hair. Hope you have many cherished memories to get you through these sorrowful times.

“ Ryan was in my life for a short time but he was a true friend right away. His amazing sense of humor, his contagious laugh, and his light hearted presence were a few of the innumerable reasons Buttery was an awesome person. Thank you to his family for bringing Ryan into the world, I wish I could take away your pain. Much love to you all- his laughter lives in us now.

“ Ryan was one of my first friends at Marlin Elementary when I moved to Bloomington. I will never forget his blonde hair and bow ties or how friendly he always was to me. I lost an irreplaceable piece of my childhood with Ryan's passing. Though we didn't remain close in recent years, I always cared deeply for him. The last time I ran into him at the College Mall, he told me he was proud of me. Those simple words have meant so much to me, and him saying that was just another example of how sweet and kindhearted he always was. Ryan will live on in the hearts of everyone he touched. My sympathies go out to the Buttery family. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I wish I could be there in person today to offer my condolences.

“ Dear Ann, my heart aches for you and your family. I just learned of your loss today when we returned from St Louis. I knew you had a great sadness but had no idea that it was the death of your son, Ryan. I can't even imagine your grief. May you gather strength from friends and family who love you and have you in their prayers. My love, Hilda

“ I wish I could appropriately put in to words how much I adored Ryan as a friend. You could not ask for a better person. I saw him just a few days before I moved away from Bloomington. He gave me a big hug, as he always did, and told me to take care of myself. I will miss his smile and his laugh the most. His laugh could make any day better. Condolences to all of Ryan's family.

“ Ryan was one of the most amazing people I ever had the pleasure of knowing. He was a big part of so many lives, including mine. He was a great friend to me always brought a smile to face, he was a great boyfriend. I have so many memories of him, all good all funny! I don't think Ryan ever met a person he didn't like. I want to say I'm at a lose for words, nothing anyone says will bring him back, but you know that he was loved by all. I hope in this horrible time that his memories will help you heal in time. I think it goes without saying if you need anything you can call on me and so many others. I will keep you all in my thoughts, prayers, and dreams. I hope you all find peace in time.

“ I was out on Old 37 a couple of weeks ago and drove by your "white house", I thought about all of the wonderful times Rachel spent there with Laura and all of you during their childhood. I hadn't seen Ryan in many years but I do remember the last time I did, it was in a grocery store parking lot, he was a teenager, he came running up to the car when he saw us, all smiles, grinning from ear to ear, he wanted to say "hello". A sweet boy who took the time to say hi to old friends. I know he grew into a man but to me I will remember him as "that sweet boy". I wish I could ease your terrible grief.

“ Jim, Ann, Jenny, Jerome, Laura - I am so terribly sorry for the loss to your family. I remember Rye, when he was a toddler. He always had such a great smile and brought such great joy to those around him.

I'm sorry that I didn't get to see him through his growing years but am glad to have had a chance to view his pictures through Facebook. I will say that it is because of him that I found Jenny, after all of the years.

In time I hope that your suffering is eased, and I hope to see you very soon.

“ Rest in Peace Dear Ryan: I know you walked into the waiting arms of Grandma. Uncle Nick remembers sitting and having a heart-to-heart; my fondest memory is when Ryan, with his cute smile and dimples, head slightly tipped, awkwardly reached out and hugged me and said, "I love you Aunt Nancy." I love you too, now and always. I hope you, Ann, Jim, Jenniffer, Laura and Jerome all find peace and comfort knowing that he is at peace now.

“ I haven't seen Ryan in many years but what I remember most about him is how hysterically funny he was. Specifically, I remember him doing a "fat man in a little coat" routine at my parents house. Really funny! I'm glad to have such fun memories with him. I'm sorry I can't be there to be with the family during this severely difficult time but I'm there in heart and spirit. Although I have not seen Ryan since we all went to Aruba in 2006, he is still dear to me.
I am so thankful to have had the time to spend with him.
May you all find some peace knowing Ryan is not suffering. He is now your guardian angel watching over everyone.
When something ironic, bizarre, or unexplainable happens, smile because it is most likely him.
I love you all.
