“ Dear Bonnie and Pete, I was thinking of you guys and the old gang from Grace Fellowship and decided to go on a Google journey. I was saddened to discover that Scott has passed away. I'm deeply sorry for your loss. Time and life paths may have separated us but you both touched my life profoundly so many years ago. I still think of you both often and with love.

“ I met Scott thru his mom from church at New Life. WOW I got to see him marry and be blessed with a wonderful daughter who looked just like him, prettier. He went with a van full of us to see Carmen in Indianapolis and what a fun time we all had. Scott's smile always lit up the room. Prayers for the family while they journey through this time. ❤️ and hugs

“ I was always excited to be introduced to Scott and have are short times with him.As my wife Laurie introduced me to him, There was something I celebrated about his confidence that he carried to stay in a flow of creativity in his life that allowed him to be a blessing to the most common of people. I am sure he affected many lives through his generosity ,smile,and brightness of his eyes. I draw an example of Gods goodness and mercy operating on his life as in mine. His expressions of kindness will be missed he always made feel excepted.

“ His laugh was contagious. His love for God was amazing, his heart was huge. Very intelligent and one thing he loved the most and always talked about, was his daughter, Jessica. He loved music 🎵 and his family and his friends. Scott would give the shirt off his back for anyone. Amazing spirit, and he was wonderful to be around.

He will be missed. 💔😞 R.I.P.
