

Scott Amos Gardner

January 10, 1976 - May 11, 2022

Scott Amos Gardner, 46, of Bloomington, passed away on Wednesday, May 11, 2022 at IU Health Bloomington Hospital. He was born on January 10, 1976 in Evanston, Illinois; the son of Clarence and Isabelle Gardner.

Scott was employed by Dr. Travel's Eye Care for many years before becoming a Patient Advocate for dialysis patients through Fresenius Kidney Care. Scott loved dancing and listening to 80's music. He enjoyed socializing and was the king of Facebook birthday shoutouts to his many friends. In his spare time, Scott enjoyed trivia, video games, feeding ducks, traveling when he could, and WWE Wrestling. He was also a huge Chicago Cubs baseball fan. He was also extremely proud of his Jamaican heritage.

Scott is survived by his children, Kyla (Brett) Dell, Hannah Gardner, and Aaliyah Gardner; grand-shorty, A.J. Dell; stepdaughter, Sarah (Brenden) Mack; siblings, Stacy Gardner, Debbie Jones-Gardner, Colin (Juliet) Gardner, and Gregg (Sophia) Wright. Aunt Marion & Uncles Chester, Lascelle Bailey, and cousins Obinnos & Michael Coley, Trevor & Dean Wilmot.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

“ I will miss you my friend! The times at the Popkorn shop that you came just to chill, talk, joke and listen to music. Man, I never will forget those times. You'll forever be part of the Popkorn family! You'll always have a seat reserved in the "spot.”

“ The Goofy Gardners. That was me and my brother Scott, always laughing and cracking jokes whenever we spoke. We both enjoyed 80's music and always dancing. Even though we would get no record deal, we had a blast doing karaoke. He was a funny guy, great dad and grandfather that loved his kids very much. He was excited to do more travel and I was glad he was able to visit me in California and see a different part of the country. He will be sorely missed and still can't believe he's gone.

“ I will always remember Scott as a witty and joyous man. He always knew how to make an entire room of people laugh and was a true jokester. He was a caring father and grandfather. He will be truly missed.
