

Serena Elizabeth Campbell

February 22, 1937 - November 23, 2024

Serena Elizabeth Brearley Campbell was a loving grandmother, mother, wife, and friend to all creatures. She lived a full life and, although she left this world unexpectedly on November 23, 2024 at the age of 87, she will be in our hearts forever.

She was born to Edna Adella and Colonel Joseph William Brearley on February 22, 1937 in Annapolis, Maryland. She attended The Peabody Institute of Arts and Music and graduated from Annapolis High School. During this time, she met and married the late Major Barry Lee Roach Sr., a pilot in the United States Air Force for 25 years. They were married for 26 years and had three children: Lee, Les, and Lisa.

Serena dedicated a 25-year career to General Motors (previously, Delco Electronics) in Kokomo, Indiana, coordinating shipping and receiving logistics. In 1973, she married the late Beckom Gilbert Campbell, a Korea War Army Veteran and devoted partner to Serena for 46 years until his passing in 2019.

She found joy in caring for all of God's creatures and loved her cats and dogs dearly. She was a talented hairdresser and stylist, and an expert knitter. In 2019, widowed, she moved to Bloomington, Indiana to be closer to her daughter, Lisa, and granddaughters, Lauren and Stephanie. There, she peacefully lived the remainder of her years, surrounded by her animals and matrilineal family, bringing pictures to life through her love of putting colors down on paper.

Serena is survived by her three children – Barry Lee Roach Jr. and his wife, Loretta, Leslie Gene Roach, Lisa Elizabeth Weatherall – her five grandchildren, Lauren Weatherall, Thomas Weatherall, Stephanie Weatherall, Andrew Roach and his wife, Shelby, and Madison (Roach) Amburgey and her husband, Zachary – and several great-grandchildren.

A funeral service is scheduled for 12 pm on December 7, 2024 at the Allen Funeral Home on Old State Road 37 in Bloomington, Indiana. In lieu of flowers, please donate to The Nature Conservancy on her behalf.
