

Sharon Kay (Grubb) Holsapple

April 7, 1938 - December 9, 2017

Sharon Kay (Grubb) Holsapple, 79, of Linton Indiana, passed away peacefully in her home on December 9, 2017 surrounded by her family.

Sharon was born in Bloomington, IN on April 7, 1938 to the late Gilbert and Alice (East) Grubb. She was a 1956 graduate of Bloomington High School and later went on to work as an assembly technician for RCA until she retired. Sharon never met a stranger, her kindness and joy touched everyone around her. Sharon's family was the center of her life, she was a wonderful example of what it meant to love actively, and her family is a wonderful example of her strength and dedication. She was an "eclectic" collector and loved to shop for antiques and go to flea markets to find a deal. She loved to sing and play the accordion and the organ. Sharon was a beloved wife and mother. She will be deeply missed.

Sharon is survived by her daughter, Debbie Holsapple York (Raymond); sons, Rick Holsapple (Wanda), Danny Holsapple and his girlfriend Kimberly; brother, Jack Grubb; sister, Martha Bezy; sister in law, Beverly Trowbridge; grandchildren, Amanda, James, Skyler, Shannon, Seaver, and Adriana; great grandchildren, Danica, Randy, Ronnie Wayne, Makia, Wyatt, and Rylan; several nieces and nephews.

Her parents, her loving husband of 58 years Ronald Laverne Holsapple; and a son, Bradley Scott Holsapple preceded her in death.

A gathering of family and friends will be held from 4:00 P.M. until 8:00 P.M. on Tuesday, December 12, 2017 at Allen Funeral Home and Crematory, 4155 S.

Old State Rd 37, Bloomington.

You are invited to share a memory or leave an online condolence to Sharon's family at www.allencares.com

“ I had the honor of being Ronnie’s home health nurse for a time, and I looked forward always to seeing Sharon, as she was the talker and always made me feel so welcome, and like I was the most important person in the world when we would talk. I am sad to hear of her passing and that I was not able to see her again. She is lovingly remembered.
