

Sherry Lynn Malicoat

March 8, 1944 - December 24, 2012

Sherry Lynn Malicoat, age 68 of Bloomington passed away Monday morning, December 24, 2012 at Indiana University Hospice House. Sherry was born March 8, 1944 in Bloomington to Lee Roy Allgood and Venetia Rose Sturgeon Allgood.

Sherry was a 1961 graduate of Bloomington High School, spent her professional career with J.C. Penney and was a member of the Southern Hills Church of Christ. Her friends and family will remember her most though for how much she loved and adored her grandchildren.

Sherry leaves behind her children Rita Eads and her husband Meredith; Doug Malicoat and Curt Malicoat, all of Bloomington. Also surviving are grandchildren Chelsey Eads, Curtiss Malicoat Jr., Morgan Eads Wild, and her mother Venetia Rose Allgood. She was preceded in death by her father and a brother David Allgood.

Funeral services for Sherry will be conducted Friday December 28, 2012 at 11:00AM at Allen Funeral Home 4155 South Old Highway 37. Pat Arthur will preside. Burial will follow in the Clear Creek Cemetery. Visitation will be held on Thursday December 27, 2012 from 4:00PM until 8:00PM as well as an hour before the funeral on Friday at Allen Funeral Home.

The family asks everyone to consider becoming a blood donor as their mother benefited significantly from those that did so unselfishly.

Memorial contributions may be made in Sherry's memory to the American Cancer Society or Indiana University Health Hospice and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

“ Curtis, Rita, Doug, Curtis Jr.~~We are so sorry about the loss of your Mother/Grandma. After just losing my Mom the end of October--right before Holidays arriving--I know the sorrow you feel and how much you miss her. But, I know you will have lots of fond memories of her that will make you smile. Our prayers will be with you and your family.

“ To Sherry's mother and children. I grew up with Sherry, went to McCalla School with her, went to summer school at Universtiy Elementary in 1955 with her, and Bloomington High School. We graduated in 1961 together. On December 28, 1958, Sherry and I were baptized at Indiana Avenue Church. I remember visiting with her probably in 1969 after she had Rita and Doug, and I had my first son, Chuck. I didn't see her much after that, except when I would visit the Avenue. I last saw Sherry when Indiana Avenue had its reunion a few years ago. Sherry was a fun person and we spent a lot of time together as young friends. Rose may remember that I broke a glass at their house once when I went there to eat dinner. (Rose would remember me as Mary Atwood's oldest daughter). I remember David and their big dog, a boxer, I think. I am sorry to the family for your loss, but God is good and Heaven is for real, so Sherry is in excellent loving hands. May God bless all of you.
