“ Today I think of you, Sherry, Kim, Felecia, Kenda, your brother Larry, your dad, your husbands, your children and stretch my arms around you and squeeze real tight.

I think of your mother one fourth of July years ago and see her smile, her laugh, her joy, her love for her family.

I think of the magnolia flower, Sherry shared a gorgeous picture of a magnolia just recently with Mother and Mother smiled.

I think like a magnolia that blooms boldly with splendid beauty and magnificence,

*I think of your mother's first gift of life,
I think of your mother's second gift of love that will bloom forever in your hearts,
and*

I think of your mother's last gift of peace and understanding.

I think now...no words..

*Love,
The Jones Family*

“ Dear Kim and family,

I was so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. You have had so much pain this year. I am sorry I cannot be there in person. I am out of state. I wanted you to know that you are all in the thoughts and prayers of everyone at the CPC and Hannah House.

God bless you.

“ shirley was like a mother to me, I got the pleasure to know her for 25 years. She had a heart of gold never asked me for anything but was always ready to give. I got the pleasure to be married to her daughter kenda for 21 beautiful years. I also had the honor to live right behind her for the last 12 years and are relationship just got stronger and stronger. I will think of you everyday and will miss you very very much. Thanks for always making me feel loved like i was one of your own children. I LOVE YOU SHIRLEY....ROBBY
