“ Jim, I was sorry to hear about your Mom's passing. Although I hadn't seen her for several years I will always remember her warm smile and easy laugh. One of my fondest memories is of our first "date". We went to the drive-in but we were so young your Mom had to drive us! I hope all is well with you and your family. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this sad time.

“ Joy,

I was sad to see that your Mom passed away last week. May you always remember the best of times that you had with her, and know that she will be watching over your family from above now. I will never forget her jovial laughter that made it seem as if there weren't a problem in the world.

*Take care,
Jessica*

“ Dear Joy, Brian, and Dylan, and Family,
These words have brought me much comfort and feelings of tenderness from the Lord, Who alone can provide our needs, and
Who knows and cares about all our pain:

*Be still, my soul: the Lord is on thy side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain.
Leave to thy God to order and provide;
In every change, He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul: thy best, thy heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

*Be still, my soul: thy God doth undertake
To guide the future, as He has the past.
Thy hope, thy confidence let nothing shake;
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still, my soul: the waves and winds still know
His voice Who ruled them while He dwelt below.*

*Be still, my soul: when dearest friends depart,
And all is darkened in the vale of tears,
Then shalt thou better know His love, His heart,
Who comes to soothe thy sorrow and thy fears.
Be still, my soul: thy Jesus can repay
From His own fullness all He takes away.*

*Be still, my soul: the hour is hastening on
When we shall be forever with the Lord.
When disappointment, grief and fear are gone,
Sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored.
Be still, my soul: when change and tears are past
All safe and blessed we shall meet at last.*

*Be still, my soul: begin the song of praise
On earth, believing, to Thy Lord on high;
Acknowledge Him in all thy words and ways,*

*So shall He view thee with a well pleased eye.
Be still, my soul: the Sun of life divine
Through passing clouds shall but more brightly shine.*
