

Dr. Stanley Hamilton

October 25, 1941 - May 27, 2026

Dr. Stanley Hamilton was born on October 25, 1941, in Chicago, IL, and died on May 27, 2026, in Bloomington, IN. He was the son of the late Francis Lee Hamilton and Martha Annis Broshears Hamilton of Terre Haute, IN.

Stanley was predeceased by his former wife, Hilary Hollis Hamilton of Terre Haute, IN, and by his son, Andrew J. F. Hamilton, Sr., of Indianapolis, IN, and is survived by his daughter, Dr. Alison Broshears Hamilton of Portland, OR and daughter-in-law, Karen Hamilton of Indianapolis, IN.

He is also survived by his six grandchildren and two great grandchildren; two sisters-in-law and four nephews; and many beloved friends both near and far. He was a devoted member of Trinity Episcopal Church, Bloomington, for over 20 years.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations to Black & Beyond the Binary Collective (a nonprofit in Portland, OR) or Trinity Episcopal Church, Bloomington.

Cremation rites have been accorded, and Allen Funeral Home is handling the arrangements.

Tribute Wall

RE

“ We loved Stan as a neighbor. He doted on our toddler and was a beloved part of our little community. He will be missed. Sending love to your family during this time!

Ree & Tony Easton - June 11 at 10:16 AM

AS

“ David and I send deepest sympathy to Alison and to all of dear Stanley's family. Everyone who knew him at Trinity Episcopal Church admired his clever wit, his careful scholarship, his superb musicianship, his excellent cooking, and his warm friendliness and congeniality. He will be greatly missed, but the memories he leaves behind will always be with us as an exemplar of a life well-lived.

Anne T. Sampson

Anne T. Sampson - June 06 at 12:00 AM

PP

“ Stan was a beloved neighbor. We enjoyed our talks and a toast together. He will be missed in our community. Fly high Stanley Hamilton 🕊️

Prentice Parker - June 04 at 12:46 PM