“ What a great man. I had the pleasure of being his next door neighbor for 2 years. When the weather was nice we would sit outside in between our adjoining garages and sip coffee and talk about anything that came to mind , weather , flowers , squirrels , the pesky chipmunks , gossip worthy neighbors....And life...He told me once he had had a long great life , even though there was sadness and bumps and bruises , He couldn't complain. Never heard him speak ill of anyone. He will always be remembered as The Mayor by me. Love to his family who shared him with me for those 2 years....He is now with the Love of his life.... And I bet there was once heck of a celebration.

Definitely one of the most caring and grateful persons that I or my family knew. He was a Great Guy, and this world needs more like him.
