“ I cannot help but remember when we found out our daughters were born on the same day and year hours apart. I will really miss the little girl whom grew into a woman. I am so sorry for your families loss. I would have been there but I am in Florida for about 3 more weeks. Just know that I am sending you hugs and prayers.
All my love

“ I don't know where to even start. I'm sorry I didn't make it today,I wanted to remember you from the last time we were together. I'm so glad to had me to you,you became one of my best friends in Madison. We made the most out of our days and never had a dull moment. You were always there when I needed you and I'm so sorry I wasn't there when you needed me. Fly high my beautiful friend,you will never be forgotten
