

Stephanie Lee

April 24, 1953 - December 25, 2009

Stephanie Grossman Lee, 56, of Bloomington, passed away Friday, December 25, 2009, while under Hospice care. Stephanie was born on April 28, 1953. She graduated from Bloomington High School in 1971 and attended Indiana University in Bloomington. Stephanie was a life long student of metaphysics from multiple disciplines and incorporated her knowledge, passion and experience into her work as an energy and intuitive healer and teacher, past life regression therapist, a hypno-therapist, as well as a certified massage therapist. At the time of her death, Stephanie worked primarily in eldercare. Previously she had worked in the restaurant business and had practiced massage therapy at the YMCA. Stephanie is remembered as someone who excelled in her service to others. In addition, she loved nature, skateboarding with her grandson Crow, dancing, reading, writing and had a beautiful singing voice. Stephanie will be greatly missed by her family, friends, coworkers and clients. Survivors include her daughter Amber Lee and grandson Immanuel Crow Brennan of North Bennington, Vermont; long time love and companion, Chet Cherry of Bloomington; mother Diane Gerard of Bloomington; sisters Cindy Grossman (Steve) Hobbs of Coldwater Lake, Michigan and Jennifer Grossman (Jay) True of Bloomington; brothers Christian (Elizabeth) Grossman of Covington, Kentucky and David Grossman of Bloomington; nieces and nephew Amy Witmer (Andy) Haberly, Tim (Amy) Witmer, Lauren Grossman (Travis) Dorsey, Madison True and Taylor True; extended family Pat Grossman and Dena and McKensie Cromer of Florida. Her father, Rin F. Grossman of Bloomington, preceded Stephanie in death, as did Jerrod Gerard. The family will hold a private Memorial Service. Memorial Contributions may be made to Southern Care Hospice, Attn: Lori Resler, 1923 S. Liberty Drive, Bloomington, IN 47403. In the words of a favorite author, Everything revolves around intention and agenda. If we are doing something out of strength, it makes sacred the act we are about to do. 12/24/2009 Caroline Myss. Arrangements handled by Allen Funeral Home.