“ We are so sad to hear of Steves passing. We have bragged about his workmanship to so many of our family and friends for over 9 yrs. He was responsible for turning our new home, at the time, from a house into a home with his craftsmanship and knowledge of cabinetry. Many times we have wanted to call him during the past few years with new projects we were dreaming of but due to poor economy we were unable to afford them. Our prayers are with you during this sorrowful time.
