

Steve G. Eads

October 18, 1953 - February 7, 2024

Steve G. Eads, 70, of Bloomington passed away on Wednesday February 7, 2024 at his home with his family by his side.

He was born on October 18, 1953 in Bloomington, Indiana, the son of Forrest Wendel “Jim” and Betty Jean (Porter) Eads. Steve was a 1971 graduate of Bloomington High School.

Steve’s professional life included contributions to Bloomington Hardware, All Seasons Heating Cooling, Circle Proscos Inc, and the Justice Building.

His call to ministry started by teaching Sunday School at Fairview Methodist Church, he then pastored at Walkers Chapel, and Garrison Chapel, followed by Gosport United Methodist Church, Mineral Church and finally Nine Mile Church. Steve loved mushroom and arrowhead hunting, detailing/driving his truck, Jammin’ music, and racing with his son. He will be greatly missed by all who loved and knew him.

Steve is survived by his children, Josh Eads of Bloomington; Nikki Gann of Milton, FL; Justin Stacy Eads of Charleston, SC; James Eads of Bloomington; a brother Stacy Eads of Georgia; a sister Elaine Eads of Bloomington; Camille Wright, Five grandchildren; several nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Jim and Betty Eads; one brother, Mark Eads.

An informal memorial service will be held at his home 224 S. Maple ST on Saturday 02/17/2024 from 02:00 – 04:00 p.m. Cremation Rites have been accorded.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory have been entrusted with arrangements.

“ I went to jr high with Steve. I was the new kid, and I was terribly bullied. If you knew Dyer Jr High, you'll know what I mean. Anyway, one day after coming out of the shower in gym class my hair was a mess, and Steve offered me his comb. I remember him as a really decent guy.

“ I am so sorry. I had no idea that Steve passed away. We sure had a lot of fun when we were kids. I remember being at your house a lot. And, of course, we went to Bryan Park (your back yard) an awful lot. I remember that Steve went out on a date with a friend of mine. Her dad made him fill out a questionnaire! LOL
Please know I have great memories of Steve and all of you.
