

Steve H. Sander

January 26, 1942 - December 19, 2023

Steve H. Sander, age 81, passed away peacefully at Monroe Hospital, in Bloomington, Indiana, on December 19, 2023. He was born January 26, 1942 in Indianapolis, Indiana, to Ralph and Lora Sander. During his life, Steve worked as a welder for the Plumber and Steamfitters Local 440, a profession he was very proud of. He was a wonderful father as well.

Steve is survived by his beloved wife, Pamela A. Sander; his stepsons, Timothy R. (Ivette) Lentz and Scott E. (Sheryl) Lentz; his stepdaughter, Marilyn Katheryn Lentz Bowman; his brothers, William Sander, and Jack Sander; and many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents and half-brother, Robert Sander.

Steve has been a Jehovah's Witness since 1982 and he loved his God, Jehovah very much. As Steve's wife will say, "He was my best friend as well as my husband. I never heard him say an unkind word about anyone. He didn't talk about anyone unless he had the true facts about a situation." "He always used these two phrases and when we got married and I heard them, it irritated me at first; until I understood the meaning," "He would say, "You can't change it—don't worry about it," "The other phrase this— "Why does that bother you?," "Meaning you have your standards, leave the other person alone and be kind. You may help them down the road."

Steve may have used his own words, but his God, Jehovah, helped him learn it and apply it, which he did. Of course, I knew from my God, Jehovah, to be loving and kind, but these two phrases from my husband stick in my mind. I hope this helps anyone that reads this to really understand Steve. I know Steve is asleep and Jehovah will resurrect him, then he can read this. So in my thoughts. I'm saying, it's time to say, "It is what it is" and I will try not to worry anymore because "it is what it is". You or I can't change anything now, only Jehovah can.

A burial for Steve will be held at Riverside Cemetery in Spencer, IN, on Friday, December 29, 2023 at 3pm.
