

Sue Newcomer

August 25, 1942 - October 29, 2011

Sue Newcomer was born in Vincennes, Indiana, on August 25, 1942 to Raymond and Juanita Fuller. She had resided in Bloomington for 18 years. She died after an extended illness while in the hospital in Indianapolis, Indiana on Saturday, October 29, 2011. Sue has two children, Jennifer (Robert) Carr and John (Shari) Newcomer, five grandchildren, Jeremy Moore, Nicholas Moore, Robert Kabzinski, Aaron Kabzinski, and Rachel Newcomer, and one great grand-daughter, Sheyenne Moore. Her siblings are Billy Ray fuller, Kathy Like, and Julie Napier. She had many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by a son, Scott Allen Newcomer, her father Ray Fuller and sister Jeanine Gilday. Sue enjoyed her grandchildren, her flower gardens, spending time with her friends, loved her church and was dedicated to her pets. She was a very dedicated member of Bloomington Baptist Church since June 15, 2003. She was greatly loved by her pastor and fellow church members. She was faithful in attendance at all services and was a faithful servant in many church activities, excelling in the kitchen and fellowship events in the life of her church. She was always thankful for the special care of her fellow church members Janet Carter and Emily Dawson who loved and ministered to her especially in her last months of life, and Jason Wichlacz for helping her with much work around her house and yard. Sue also enjoyed years of service at the Hillel Center in Bloomington, Indiana, where she was loved and appreciated. A memorial service will be held Wednesday, November 2, 2011 at 7:00 P.M. at the Bloomington Baptist Church, 111 S. Kimble Dr. Bloomington, Indiana. Rev. Randy A. McCollum will be officiating. Friends are invited.

“ *Jennifer and John -
I was so sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. I didn't see her a lot, but she was always so kind to me when I was younger. I felt welcome in her home when I visited down there, and I have nothing but good memories of her. My family will keep you in our prayers in the weeks to come. I love you guys and think of you often! Blessig to you and yours.*
