

Sumiko M. "Smokey" North

November 10, 1934 - January 10, 2017

Sumiko "Smokey" North, 82, of Bloomington, passed away peacefully on January, 10 after a sudden illness.

Sumiko was born in Sapporo, Japan November 10, 1934. Sumiko met the love of her life, James North, Sr., where James was stationed in the Army. They moved to Bloomington in the early 1960's where they raised two wonderful children. Sumiko was a waitress for over 35 years. First at the original Dragon Inn, and then at Peach Garden.

Sumiko's proudest day was when she attained her US citizenship in 1970. The news clipping from the Herald Telephone was in her scrapbook. Sumiko loved gardening, walking with her friends at the gym, giving her garden tomatoes to close friends and giving treats to the dogs next door. Sumiko was small in stature with a big loving heart.

Sumiko was preceded in death by her husband; James North, Sr. (US Army, RET); and her youngest son, Donald "Donnie" North. She is survived by her oldest son, James North, Jr. (Luanne).

Honoring her wishes, the family will have a private ceremony. Sumiko will eternally rest in peace at The Garden of the Crosses at Valhalla Memory Gardens. Online condolences can be sent to the family at njames362@aol.com. Cards can be mailed to Jim North, Jr at 1021 W Winding Way Bloomington, IN 47404.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 South Old State Road 37 is handling the arrangements and online condolences, photos, and memories
