“ Susan always had warm smiles a welcoming spirit to me and my family. I enjoyed getting to know her in a bible study at church and visit with her Sunday mornings after church services. She had a lovely peaceful presence about her. The Pope family sends our love and prayers to the King family in this time of loss.

“ Susan was a remarkable lady who embodied the grace of a “gentle, quiet spirit”.

She and I shared a love for American history; we would frequently compare notes regarding interesting tidbits we had encountered in our reading.

I'll always count it an honor to have sung with Susan in our traditional service praise team. Our group is already missing her lovely soprano voice...a reflection of the beauty of her spirit.

I'm confident that the good Lord has enlisted her services in some angelic choir!

“ Couldn't believe it when I heard Susan had passed. I got to know Susan through working with her at First Republic Mortgage. I think I talked to her at least once a week while I was there. She was always quiet but I did my best to make her laugh during our conversations. She will be missed very much. Thoughts are with the family. Bill Welter
