“ To David and Ross: Susie and I were best friends throughout junior high and high school. We shared the best of times listening to rock and roll, dancing, talking about boys and everything else girls do. We just spoke in late December to wish each other happy birthday. She sounded like she was in the best spirits I had heard for some time. I had no idea of any terminal illness. I send my love and empathy to you and your families. I will miss her. Patty Neal
