“ Still so hard to believe you're gone. You will always be known as one of my best friends, Taylor. I may be disheartened that you aren't on this Earth with us anymore, but I can rejoice knowing that there are no more days of pain for you. You were remarkable, funny, creative, caring, strong, encouraging, and a whole plethora of adjectives that I wouldn't be able to think of. Rest in peace, Taylor. We all love you.

“ We worked together quite often and would talk about many different things. One being about how she would go fishing with her dad to catch fish and bring them to Wildcare to feed the eagle they had. She was so passionate and happy and proud about it. She was always ready to laugh at a joke or brighten up someone's day. She will be missed terribly. She was really a great person.

“ I still can't believe this beautiful (got that from Trish) smart-alec (from Scott) creative (that was 100% Taylor) child is suddenly gone from this world. Aunt Ann thought there would be many times to meet up with you -- and I would give anything to be able to take you out to dinner right now.

Dear Lord, please keep Taylor safe in your arms, until the day we see her again.

Love and miss this angel.

“ My first memory of Taylor was her sitting in the back seat of her parents car with her baby sister before they moved to California. She was so well behaved and beautiful, like a little china doll with dark hair and dark brown eyes. She was always so sweet and quiet.

“ I didn't know Taylor very long but I had the pleasure of working right beside her, while at Stone Belt. I actually spent almost the entire day with her on Friday as she assisted me in my classroom and I will forever be thankful for that! Taylor was a very loving and compassionate young woman and we will miss her greatly. Fly high Tay. Room 1 will miss you!
